EUROPEAN AIR LAW ASSOCIATION

FIFTH COPENHAGEN AIR FINANCE LEGAL SEMINAR

Copenhagen, Friday 6th February 2015
Skt. Petri Hotel
EALA is pleased to invite you to attend its 5th aircraft finance legal seminar, to be held at Hotel Skt. Petri, Copenhagen.

EALA’s mission
Since 2006, EALA has arranged aircraft finance seminars in Copenhagen focusing on important legal issues for the aviation finance industry. Over those years EALA has gained international recognition and respect as a leading forum for the discussion of topical developments regarding aviation law, especially from a European perspective. The mission of EALA is to:

- serve as the leading and essential association addressing the development of air law in Europe;
- ensure dissemination of information about, and the study of, air law in Europe;
- be a forum for the exchange of views and provide an opportunity for those interested in European air law to meet each other; and
- engage in or promote any other activity which the Committee decides is in furtherance of EALA’s principal objectives.

This year, the morning session will be moderated by NORD/LB’s Matthias Reuleuax and discuss aircraft finance modelling with focus on aircraft portfolio finance transactions.

The first session is followed by a panel moderated by John Pritchard, Holland & Knight, dealing with the highly relevant and practical discussion on enforcement of security and title over aircraft.

After lunch, time has come for various considerations on the Cape Town convention, including its interplay with the Geneva Convention.

Yet again, John Cruse, JLT Aerospace, has agreed to give his update on the aviation insurance market and the last subject on the seminar agenda is Gavin Hill’s recurring panel on ‘what is hot’ in aviation finance and leasing where we will get the panel’s take on, among other matters, challenges for new lessors and Irish and Luxembourg aircraft financing trends.

EALA invites all aviation lawyers, lessors, financiers, insurance providers, airlines and other industry representatives to attend.

You are cordially invited to attend the conference drinks reception and dinner on Thursday evening, 5th February 2015.

Please book at your earliest convenience for this interesting event under the auspices of EALA.
