STUDIO LEGALE PIERALLINI & ASSOCIATI

Studio Legale Pierallini & Associati is a multidisciplinary law firm based in Rome and Milan. The name partner, Laura Pierallini, has for years teamed up with the Legal and Tax Department of Arthur Andersen Worldwide Organization, before spinning-off in 1992, and affiliated to the international law firm Coudert Brothers from March 2001 to December 2005. The firm is member of the worldwide network L2B Aviation Group and Ms. Pierallini belongs to the most important aviation associations, such as EALA, IAWA and the European Aviation Club.

The firm enjoys a distinguished and qualified reputation in the aviation field, capable of offering a broad range of legal assistance to the airlines, leasing companies and lenders with respect to all aspects of buying, selling, leasing and financing aircraft, as well as to airports, manufacturers, airport handlers and travel agents for any legal and regulatory issue related to the air transport.

Moreover, the firm assists airlines in regulatory matters, including advisory services and assistance, planning and compliance in connection with representation before governmental agencies, having continuous contacts with the Civil Aviation Authorities, mainly in Italy and EU, but also abroad. The firm has assisted the two most recent IPO of airlines in the Italian market as well as M&A of domestic airlines by foreign airlines and also acted as counsel to Administrators and major Italian airlines in Extraordinary Administration.

Ms. Pierallini has attended many conferences on aviation, presenting speeches at various Italian and international symposia, such as, inter alia, the IATA Legal Symposium on consumer protection and airlines passenger issues held in Lisbon on February 28, 2010 and the Passenger Rights Seminar held in Brussels on October 22, 2010.

Ms. Pierallini is adviser to the Italian Association of Air Carriers as well as professor of Commercial Law and Air Law at the Master of Aviation and Tourism at the LUISS University of Rome.
